LITURGY OF THE WORD

"Your words, Lord, are spirit and life." (Psalm 19)

First Reading Deuteronomy 18:15-20

Responsorial Psalm 95

Come, let us sing joyfully to the Lord; let us acclaim the Rock of our salvation. Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us joyfully sing psalms to him.

Come, let us bow down in worship; let us kneel before the Lord who made us. For he is our God, and we are the people he shepherds, the flock he guides.

Oh, that today you would hear his voice: "Harden not your hearts as at Meribah, as in the day of Massah in the desert, Where your fathers tempted me; they tested me though they had seen my works."

Closing Hymn God Has Spoken By The Prophets

God has spoken by the prophets,
spoken his unchanging word,
Each from age to age proclaiming
God, the one, the righteous Lord.
In the world's despair and turmoil,
one firm anchor holds us fast:
God eternal reigns forever, God the first and God the last.

God has spoken by Christ Jesus, Christ, the everlasting Son,
Brightness of the Father's glory, with the Father ever one;
Spoken by the Word incarnate,
God from God, before time was;
Light from Light, to earth descending,
Christ reveals our God to us.

God is speaking by the Spirit, speaking to our hearts again,
In the ageless Word declaring
God's own message, now as then.
Through the rise and fall of nations,
one sure faith is holding fast:
God abides, his word unchanging,
God the first and God the last.
