KNIGHT OF THE IMMACULATA 2.0

St. Max Youth Ministry

Chosen!

This week we hear in the Gospels that it was not us who chose God, but God who first chose us. It's easy to read that over quickly and move on to the next section, but how often do we live our lives with CONFIDENCE having been chosen by the God of the Universe? I mean, that's a BIG DEAL. Throughout our lives we are rejected by sports teams, friends, and sometimes even family members. We have a ton of reasons to feel like we have not been chosen, but we forget that the most important Person in the Universe chose us before we even existed. YOU are incredible, YOU are worthy of love. Don't ever forget it! On your highest days and your lowest days, God looks at you and is thrilled with what He created when He made you. Live in your chosenness, and this week choose God every single day!

Here's a little reminder to not take life too seriously and find joy in each moment, by Heaven's comedian, Mother Angelica...

Try to laugh a lot, because life is funny, and everybody today is too serious. The only tragedy in the world, my friend, is sin.

Mother Angelica

Other glorious Mother Angelica-isms...

"If you're breathing and you've got two legs, you're called to holiness."

"The apostles were dodos, dummies. But all the smart people in the world at the time wouldn't take chances. That is the same problem we have today. The world is looking for intellectuals and the Lord is looking for dummies. That's why I'm here."

"Patience is adjusting your time to God's time"

It is believed that cheesecakes were served to athletes competing during the first Olympic games in 776 B.C. to give them energy.
