JUNIOR KNIGHTS

St. Max Youth Ministry

Holy people who had some crazy talents!

Pope St. John Paul II

Pope John Paul II was known as "Lolek the Goalie" in his younger years. He was a talented soccer player, and even as pope skied and won a hiking medal!

This doctor not only risked his life rescuing his elderly patients during a volcanic eruption; St. Giuseppe published research that helped discover insulin is a treatment for diabetes, and was among the first to use CPR.

St. Giuseppe Moscatii

Venerable Michael McGivney

The creator of the Knights of Columbus is not only on his way to becoming a saint, but during his life he was a left fielder and skilled batter.

3 fun things to do at home

Check out the Cincinnati Zoo's home safari!

Make a homemade water slide

Make chalk art on your neighborhood sidewalk

DID YOU KNOW...

The world's largest cuckoo clock is found here in Ohio!
